

Finally...
An easy way to help people know God.

Conversations about God don't need to get awkward.

“What God Offers”

is a free email series that will:

- Remove the fear of being asked really tough questions.
- Show you how to have casual, short conversations about God, in daily life.

You'll see people genuinely thank you for talking with them. Really. And most exciting, once equipped, you'll see God bring people your way.

“I am smiling as I read this. It is awesome. Now I have some idea how I should interact with unbelievers.”
